

July 2023		Leveraging Ecological Economics to advance the Sustainability Transition
Time	Day	Description
	Tuesday 11	Welcome and Introduction
17:30-18:30		Inaugural lecture Elisa Giuliani, Vice Rector for Sustainability and the 2030 Agenda – Università di Pisa
18:30-20:00		Panel for presenting the summer school (speakers from UNIFI-UNIPI-MIT-VT, and ESEE) and participants
20:30		Welcome dinner
9:30-11:00	Wednesday 12	Growth-Degrowth and Sustainable development (Tommaso Luzzati)
11:30-13:00		Georgescu-Roegen KW Kapp and basics in Ecological Economics/1 (Tommaso Luzzati)
15:30-17:00		The Inequality/Environmental Challenge (Ralph Hall)
17:30-19:00		Georgescu-Roegen KW Kapp and basics in Ecological Economics/2 (Tommaso Luzzati)
9:30-11:00	Thursday 13	Keynote lecture Elettra Stradella: Gender and AI (provisional title)
11:30-13:00		An Innovation-based Approaches to the Sustainability Transition & Related Decision-making Frameworks (Ralph Hall)
15:30-17:00		Ecological economics, complexity and system thinking (Tiziano Distefano)
17:30-19:00		New Economic Thinking - Community Wealth Building/Inclusive Capitalism (Ralph Hall)
9:30-11:00	Friday 14	Integrative Approaches to Achieving a Sustainability Transition - Policy/Law/Economics/Trade/etc. (Nicholas Ashford)
11:30-13:00		Behavioral Economics and Game-based Policies (Leonardo Boncinelli)
15:30-17:00		Measuring “sustainability” and “sustainability transition”: a multidimensional perspective (Mario Biggeri)
17:30-19:00		Ecological Macroeconomics (EM) (Tiziano Distefano)
9:00-9:45	Saturday 15	Oxford style debate #1 - Regulation-Induced Innovation vs. CSER
10:00-10:45		Oxford style debate #2 - To be decided
10:55-11:40		Oxford style debate #3 - Nudging/incentives vs. Education in promoting behavioral and environment change
		Transformation via individual actions vs. Transformation via collective action
11:45-13:00		Keynote lecture Iermano: Can Benefit Corporations help the sustainability transition? Gabriella